“I never stop reminding my ALBA alumni friends that they need to connect with the Career & Alumni Office, if they haven’t done so already. No matter at which stage in your career you are, you always stand to benefit by contacting the Office, and it’s so easy! It’s rare to find people whose passion is to help you, and you shouldn’t miss the opportunity to reach out and talk to them today about those important next steps in your professional life, as I have done several times myself.”

Panagiotis Syros, MBA 2000, Senior Product Manager, Huawei Technologies, Cork, Ireland

“The ALBA Career & Alumni Office has been my number one resource for everything related to my career so far. From CV preparation, to networking and coaching, their help has been invaluable. A big thank you is not enough for what they have done for me until now, and I feel obliged to say, that I would not have made it so far without their help.”

Konstantinos Mantzouranis, MBA 2011, Business Development Manager, Southeast Asia, Google, Singapore

“I am really proud that ALBA has such an excellent Career & Alumni Office! They always give me a reason to stay in touch with the School and fellow alumni by organizing very interesting events that combine the sharing of information, learning and networking. This is what I call an excellent “after sales support” which constantly confirms that ALBA was the right choice for me. Most importantly, the Career & Alumni Office introduced me to my current employer and opened the door to a very fascinating next career step for me!”

Kelly Panagiotidou, Professional MBA 2009, Human Resources Director, Tripsta

“For AXA, ALBA is one of the main pools of qualified candidates. Over the past few years, we have established a trustful partnership and hired talented people in many of our divisions. Either through the School’s career forum or job postings we send to the ALBA Career & Alumni Office, we have recruited graduates who combine academic background and strong expertise with soft skills that fit AXA’s culture and leadership behaviors. Moreover, some of them managed to take on more responsibilities in our organization and become part of the management team. It is certain that every year we look forward to attending the ALBA Career Forum in order to meet talented people!”

Nelina Moschovou, HR Business Partner, AXA Insurance

“Collaborating with the ALBA Career & Alumni Office gives Mars Hellas a great opportunity to work on one of our Five Principles, i.e. Mutualty, as we are able to offer graduates challenging assignments that develop them while Mars Hellas gets professional and ambitious graduates in return who help us solve complex tasks and carry out day-to-day projects. We have a great track record of welcoming ALBA graduates in our organisation and are always on the lookout for more. Thank you ALBA, for a successful collaboration!”
